

EUROPEAN UNION LEGAL RESEARCH

The European Union has developed over the years from the European Coal and Steel Community (ECSC) in 1953 with just six member states to the following 25: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, the Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, and the United Kingdom. Always check the Europa website for updates of member states. The Law Library attempts to collect all materials relevant to the nature of its research. This guide identifies primary, secondary, online databases, current awareness, blogs, wikis and research guides available for European Union legal research. An effort has been made to identify the available resources in major online databases such as Westlaw Canada, LexisNexis/Quicklaw, LexisNexis Academic and HeinOnline. The sources listed are not exhaustive and efforts will be made to update the guide as new sources become available.
